- 7:30am - board your coach and depart to Florence (285 kms; estimated 3.5 hours drive time)
- 11:30am - arrive in Florence at the Hotel due Fontane and check in for 2 nights (if rooms are not ready, store your luggage)
  - with your tour manager, purchase lunch in the area
  - walk to the nearby Accademia; split your group into two
- 1:00pm - meet your professional English speaking guides, at the entrance of Galleria Dell Accademia for a 3 hour guided walking tour of Florence - whispers are included
- 1:30pm - first group – entrance to the Galleria dell' Accademia to view Michelangelo's "David", easily the most famous sculpture in the world, which was created out of a single piece of Carrara marble between 1501 and 1504
- 1:45pm - second group – entrance to the Galleria dell' Accademia
  - your tour will also include a stop at The Duomo
  - continue on with the walking tour of Florence...the Renaissance city, which is also home to Botticelli's Birth of Venus, and Raphael's Madonna. It's where Fra' Angelico painted delicate Annunciations in bright primary colors and Giotto frescoed monks wailing over the Death of St. Francis. Your tour will take you past the Baptistery, Piazza della Signoria, Palazzo Vecchio, and The Ponte Vecchio
- 4:30pm - an interior visit to the Church of Santa Croce is included in this afternoon's tour...designed by Arnolfo di Cambio, the exterior is a significant example of gothic church architecture, but it is the interior that contains the fresco The Death of Saint Francis, by Giotto, and the burial sites of Galileo, Machiavelli, Rossini and Michelangelo

- time permitting make a stop at Vivoli Gelateria, where you can purchase what is reputed to be the best gelato in Florence - the locals have been coming here since its opening in 1937
- make your way to Restaurant Osteria dei Baroncelli (address: Chiasso dei Baroncelli, 1, 50122 Firenze)
- 7:30pm - group dinner
- after dinner return to your hotel to check in if you were unable to earlier
- retire to your rooms for the evening

Day 7 – Thursday, March 15 - FLORENCE

B

- deluxe continental breakfast included at the hotel (served daily from 7:00am to 10:00am)
- following breakfast, walk to the Uffizi Gallery (Piazza del Grano) - formerly an administration office building, it now contains some of the most famous works of art in the world, such as Botticelli's Birth of Venus and Primavera along with works by Raphael, Michelangelo, and others
- 10:15am - enjoy admission with audio-guides to one of the world's great museums, and the single best introduction to Renaissance painting, with works by Giotto, Masaccio, Paolo Uccello, Sandro Botticelli, Leonardo da Vinci, Perugino, Michelangelo, Raphael Sanzio, Titian, and Caravaggio....please note that this museum is deceptively small and what looks like a small stretch of gallery space can easily gobble up half a day, as many rooms contain nothing but Masterpieces!
- time to purchase lunch in chaperoned groups
- this afternoon explore all that Florence has to offer; visit the Mercato del Porcellino – also known as the Straw Market – where you can find leather goods, scarves and other souvenirs; or the San Lorenzo Central Market
- the Central Market of Florence (near the San Lorenzo Market) is a historical building that has undergone restoration; on the mezzanine level, a carefully curated selection of 12 artisan brands nestle into workshops where contemporary architecture contrasts with ornate ironwork. Here you can buy or taste mozzarella, every kind of cheese, fresh pasta, pizza and bread, chocolate pralines, delicious ice cream, fruit and vegetables, fish, meat, the Florentine lampredotto and special organic sandwiches.
- some may wish to visit the Palazzo Vecchio and Tower (entrance at own expense); the Palazzo Vecchio offers Roman ruins, a Medieval fortress and amazing Renaissance chambers and painting; the entire construction rests on top of the ancient theater of the Roman colony of Florentia (dating back to the first century A.D.), whose ruins can be admired in the underground level; and in the Hall of the Five Hundred you can admire murals by Leonardo da Vinci and Michelangelo; if you dare, 416 steps will take you to the very top of the tower to enjoy a breathtaking view of Florence, passing through the guardian passages that also offer spectacular views of the city and entire valley
- time to purchase dinner in chaperoned groups
- return to your hotel and retire to your rooms for the evening
