2015 GINGERBREAD LANE

HYATT REGENCY VANCOUVER CELEBRATES A MILESTONE IN ITS TRADITION OF ATTRACTING THOUSANDS OF VISITORS TO THE GINGERBREAD LANE.

For the 25th year, the Hyatt Regency, former home of the World's Largest Gingerbread Man is proud to welcome the return of the most decadent lane in the city. This most awaited event will take place in the lobby from Friday, December 4th 2015 to Sunday, December 27th 2015.

We are inviting participants to submit their Gingerbread creations for the three categories:

PROFESSIONAL CATEGORY

Entries from Culinary schools, bakeries, and baking enthusiasts.

AMATEUR CATEGORY

Entries from Culinary schools and baking enthusiasts who consider themselves Amateur. Companies and organizations may also join this category.

SECONDARY SCHOOLS CATEGORY

Entries from various high schools in Vancouver and the tri-cities.

The WINNERS of these categories will be announced at the Opening Reception on Thursday, December 3rd, and fabulous prizes await the winners.

In 2014, more than 20,000 people visited the display of over 35 gingerbread creations, each unique and individually crafted. This is your opportunity to showcase your creativity and help raised fund for Make-A-Wish BC & Yukon.

The entry that receives the most votes from the public wins the People's Choice Award and a fantastic prize.

This annual event is a production in collaboration with Make –A-Wish BC & Yukon and the participants who dedicate their time and unselfish efforts to create the incredible displays and share the spirit of the season with the viewing public.
