

Attention Parents and Caregivers! Early Childhood Educators!

A special evening with
ELLEN GALINSKY

Leading authority on child development and best-selling author of Mind in the Making followed by a Discussion with an Expert Panel and a book signing by Ellen Galinsky.

Find out about the 7 essential life skills that all children (and adults!) need in order to be successful in life, and how you can nurture these skills in your children.

An award winning, best selling author of over 40 books, Galinsky is able to synthesize research in a way that makes it accessible and relevant to educators and families alike. Her groundbreaking classic, Mind in the Making, will be a stepping stone for this memorable evening.

Continuing Professional Education Certificates available upon request.

VANCOUVER JOINT CHILDCARE COUNCIL

We know from the research that children's later success in life, in school, and throughout their adult personal and professional life, depends largely on their early life experiences. Ellen Galinsky's talk will inspire parents and caregivers to think about child development in a new way, and to explore ways to develop essential executive functions through their daily interactions with the young children in their care.
