EVENTS, ACTIVITIES AND INFORMATION

Youth and Philanthropy Initiative (YPI)

Congratulations to all the Career Life Education 10 students who presented last Wednesday as a part of the Youth and Philanthropy Initiative (YPI) program. All teams did an outstanding job researching and presenting on their chosen social issue affecting the community and local charity that is helping to address the issue. Team Unity was selected by the judging panel as the team with the top presentation. They were awarded a $5,000 cheque to grant towards their chosen charity, MOSAIC.

Parent Workshop – May 23

Parents/Guardians are invited to attend a workshop on understanding youth culture and perspective on Thursday, May 23 at 6:00 PM in the Windermere School Library. A light dinner will be served while parents/guardians learn about the pressures and stresses that young people face and how parents can help. The workshop is for parents/guardians only, so please leave your teens at home. Space is limited so please RSVP by email to alina.jacob@vch.ca. See the attachment for more information.

GNA Sign Up Deadline is May 24

Any grade 11 or 12 students who would like to write the Graduation Numeracy Assessment (GNA) in June must sign up with Ms. Siddle in the school office by Friday, May 24.

Note, all grade 10 students will write the Graduation Numeracy Assessment, June 24-27.

Invitation to the CapacityCafé

Windermere parents: Do you wonder about today's youth culture?

Join us to hear from young people who have volunteered to share:

- The stresses and pressures youth face
- What adults do that helps (& doesn't)
- What real youth think and feel

The Capacity Café is an evening for parents & caregivers, not students.*

Be a part of our community response!
